

"Rosalynn Carter Symposium Focuses on Workplace Health," APA Monitor (newsletter of the American Psychological Association), February 1997.

"Rosalynn Carter Joins High-Powered Forum Faculty," Employee Benefits News, March 1997.

"Healthy Employees, Healthy Companies: Mental Health and Mental Illness in the Workplace," Health Affairs, September/October 1997.

Lore, D. "Privacy of Mental Health Records is Topic at Center," Atlanta Journal-Constitution, November 19, 1997.

"Carter Gathering Focuses on Privacy of Mental Health Records," Atlanta Journal-Constitution, November 20, 1997.

"Patients' Privacy Eroded by Wider Access to Records," Atlanta Journal-Constitution, November 20, 1997.

"Mental Health Symposium Addresses Consent and Privacy Issues," Community Review, November 27, 1997.

"Experts Address Privacy Issue," Mental Health Report, November 28, 1997.

"Thirteenth Annual Rosalynn Carter Symposium on Mental Health Policy," Renaissance Psychosocial Rehabilitation Newsletter, December 1997.

"Symposium Highlights Debate on Confidentiality of Mental Health Records," Mental Health Weekly, December 22, 1997.

"Confidentiality and the Appropriate Use of Health Information," Consumer Affairs Bulletin (Center for Mental Health Services), Winter 1998.

"APA Trustee Stresses Patients' Right to Privacy Necessary for Optimal Psychiatric Treatment," Psychiatric News (National Council for Community Behavioral Healthcare Newsletter), January 2, 1998.

"Opposition to Law Officers Having Unfettered Access to Medical Records," Journal of American Medical Association, January 28, 1998.

"Protecting Privacy is Focus of Mental Health Symposium," APA Monitor, Volume 29, Number 2, February 1998.

Radio and Television Coverage

ABC and CBS Atlanta news coverage of 13th Annual Rosalynn Carter Symposium on Mental Health and interview with Mrs. Carter, November 20, 1997.